

Christina S. Woods

T: (239) 514-1000 / F: (239) 514-0377

E: cwoods@gfpac.com

Professional Experience:

Christina Woods has practiced law in Southwest Florida since 2005 and has more than fifteen years of experience representing closely held and family owned businesses. Christina also focuses her practice area on matters such as mergers, acquisitions, formation and disposition of entities, addressing matters involving the operations of business entities, individual tax planning, and business tax planning. Additionally, Christina is involved with ancillary estate planning and estate administration matters.

Education

New York University, LL.M., 1990
Drake University, J.D., with honors, 1986
University of Northern Iowa, B.A. in Accounting, 1983

Bar Admissions

Florida
Texas

Professional Involvement

American Bar Association
The Florida Bar
The Texas Bar (Business and Tax Law Section)
Collier County Bar Association (Trusts and Estates Section)
Collier County Women's Bar Association

Community Involvement

Boy Scouts of America, Volunteer
Participate in local fundraisers for charitable organizations, which include the Muscular Dystrophy Association and Boy Scouts of America
Participated as PTA Member and as a Volunteer in Collier County, Florida

Practice Areas: Business Services, Trusts & Estates

Areas of Concentration:

Representing clients, including, but not limited to, developers, professional groups, and business entrepreneurs, in planning and forming and/or restructuring businesses

Representing clients with buy-sell planning

Advising clients in matters involving partnerships and limited liability companies, which includes drafting partnership or operating agreements

Representing clients in merger and acquisitions

Advising clients on tax issues and business issues which arise in complex business transactions and every day business operations

Representing parties in estate planning and administration matters

Representing professional businesses involving licensing requirements with the Florida Department of Business Professional Regulations

Representing nonprofit entities with respect to corporate formations and IRS compliance matters